LAKE MBURO NATIONAL PARK EXPERIENCE.

Uganda is a place of extraordinary sights and unlimited adventure. The home of lofty peaks and giant fauna; of wild rivers and sweeping savannahs. It is where fantasies are set, and memories are made.

Lake Mburo National Park is a compact gem, located conveniently close to the highway that connects Kampala to the parks of western Uganda. It is the smallest National Park in Uganda.

It's home to 350 bird species and animals such as zebras, impalas, elands, buffalos, oribi, Defassa waterbuck, leopard, hippo, hyena, topi, and reedbuck.

Together with 13 other lakes in the area, Lake Mburo forms part of a 50 km-long wetland system linked by swamps.

The Park is located in Kiruhura district and easily accessible by road, approximately a 3-4 hour drive from Kampala.
